

i-FINOG

UNIVERSITI MALAYSIA PAHANG

Rules & Formal Laws

Genius Creative Transformation

Versi 4.0 January 2016

INTRODUCTION

Genius Creative Transformation is a competition which the participants will presents their ideas or products that related to the use of discarded goods/ recycling of human daily life. The competition is open to students of primary school only.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- I. This competition is for students of primary school. Each group is required to produce their own ideas or invention by using recycled materials.
- II. This competition fostered a creative thinking culture in the production of products using recycled materials as well as benefits to our daily life. In addition, this competition also develop talent and innovation spirit that are continuous among primary school students.
- III. Each group consist of 3 students and a teacher as group's advisor.
- IV. The competition is open to a maximum of 50 groups only. The fee is RM250 for school in Malaysia (not including an accommodation and transportation) while 200 USD for international school (including accommodation).
- V. Students may present their product in Malay or English language and require to answer the question from jury.
- VI. The maximum score is 100%.
- VII. Each group have a chance to win the award Gold, Silver, and Bronze.
- VIII. Special Awards will be given to the best overall invention.

